FOUR KILLED BY FALLING WALLS

Four Others Missing and as Many More Badly Hurt.

BUFFALO WATERWORKS DOWN

Cause of Giving Away of Structure Being Constructed of Steel, Concrete and Brick Is Not Understood.

Buffalo, N. Y., July 1.—Four men are dead; four are missing, and undoubtedly are dead, and four others were seriously injured in the collapse of one of the main buildings of the new water works at the foot of Porter avenue on the lake and river front.

The building was of steel, concrete and brick, about 200 feet in length and seventy-five feet in width. The gable of the roof was eighty feet above the floor of the basement and there were no intervening floors. Fully 100 feet of the roof and side walls went down. The building was nearly completed and only the tin workers, tile layers and glaziers were at work, not more than sixteen men. Four of the tile layers escaped by running to the north end of the building, which did not fall.

Investigations have been started by the mayor and the district attorney. No positive theory has been advanced by any of the officials. The tile for the roof was being hoisted by a block and tackle to a scaffolding which rested upon the iron girders that supported the truss work upon which the roof was laid. Whether this platform was overloaded with material is one of the questions which the investigation is expected to show. The contractor says that it was not.

The four missing were buried under ten feet of debris and their bodies could not be recovered for several hours.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Killing the Birds.

It has been noticed by a number of people that many small boys seem to find great pleasure in shooting whins, pigeons and other small birds which make the summer so much more pleasant and enjoyable. We are sure they do not realize what dreadful crimes they are thoughtlessly committing by their actions. But still it is high time that this sort of thing were stopped. It must not last for if it does, in a few years we should be blessed with no birds at all except possibly those who now are loved by some and hated by many, such as sparrows and crows.

If you see some lad so thoughtlessly and really cheerfully taking the life of one of God's own creatures tell him what he is doing and ask him to refrain from such sport as that. We have merely mentioned this here and while much more might be said on the subject, we prefer that each one should consider the matter himself and do all he can to prevent the slaughter of the birds.

INCOME TAX IN WISCONSIN NEAR

Measure Passes Legislature and Is up to Governor.

WHAT INCOMES WILL BE TAXED

Salary of $800 a Year for Unmarried and $1,200 for Married Persons to be Exempt—Other Exemptions.

Madison, Wis., June 30.—Wisconsin will undoubtedly soon have an income tax. The senate refused to reconsider the vote by which it occurred in the income tax bill. The vote was 14 to 11 against reconsideration. This eliminates the possibility of the measure being sent to the people for final action and finally puts the income tax question up to the governor.

Prior to taking the vote there was a short discussion in which the chief feature was the reading of a protest from Kenosha manufacturers against the bill and the statement of Senator Bishop that the workers were against the proposed law. The assembly bill was concurred in by the senate Wednesday night after a long and acrimonious discussion by a vote of 15 to 14 and this later vote finally ends the fight which began Jan. 1. Here are the chief provisions of the bill.

If an income is over $500 the recipient must make a return to the assessor.

If one is unmarried the income will be taxed when it passed the $800 mark.

The tax is graduated on incomes starting at 1 per cent on incomes of $1,000 or any part of it and increasing one-quarter percent on each added $1,000 until $12,000 is reached, when the tax is 5 1/2 per cent. Over the $12,000 the tax is 6 per cent.

Corporations will be allowed exemptions on sums paid for salaries and wages if such corporations return to the assessor the amounts of such salaries and the names of those receiving them.

In computing the tax and exemptions the income of husband, wife and each child under eighteen years is added, when all live together. United States officials are exempt so far as their salaries are concerned, as are pensions from the United States, salaries of members of the legislature, and taxes paid upon the business from which the income is derived.

WISCONSIN MAN IN FOR PROBING

Isaac Stephenson Is the One Now under Scrutiny.

SENATE GETS PAPERS IN CASE

Matter Is Referred to Committee on Privileges and Elections, Which Is Now Investigating Lorimer of Illinois.

Washington, July 1.—The receipt of the resolution of the Wisconsin legislature, requesting the United States senate to investigate the election of Senator Isaac Stephenson indicates that the senate committee on privileges and elections has its work cut out for several months.

The records in the case, containing a report of the investigation by a joint committee of the Wisconsin legislature was received from the secretary of state of Wisconsin and laid before the senate by the vice president. On motion of Senator Heyburn, the documents were referred to the committee on privileges and elections.

Chairman Dillingham and seven members of the committee were engaged on the Lorimer case, so no meeting was held to consider the Stephenson resolution. It is probable that the case will be discussed early next week. Since eight members of the committee are now engaged on an investigation of the Lorimer case there are but seven members left, five Republicans and two Democrats, to make up a committee on the case of Mr. Stephenson.

Should the precedent be followed by the senate in the creation of a special Lorimer investigating committee with the powers of a full committee be followed in the present instance, a committee of seven members, with Mr. Heyburn as chairman, will be appointed to probe the Stephenson case.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

CAPLAN IS IN LONDON

Dynamite Suspect Believed to be under Surveillance.

Los Angeles Officers Seek Extradition of Man Supposed to be McNamara's Pal.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 1.—A man believed to be David Caplan, one of the alleged McNamara dynamite conspirators, is under surveillance in London. Papers are being prepared for his extradition from England to this country. District Attorney John D. Fredericks is in Washington conferring with Secretary of State Knox regarding the case, and it is expected he will join Detective William Burns, who went to London six weeks ago, and bring back the suspect.

These facts were confirmed by officials of the district attorney's office. "Papers are being prepared," said Manager E. R. Mills of the local bureau's agency, "until then we cannot discuss the case. Burns, however, is in England."

Mills was asked if it was believed that Schmidt, the third man suspected of having set the bombs that destroyed the Times plant last October, also was in England.

"No," said Mills, "unless we are mistaken, Schmidt is somewhere in the northwest."

The man alleged to be captured was run down by Scotland Yard men in London.

The robbers rifled the mail car, blowing up the safe, and made away with the registered mail. They tried to secure entrance to the express car, but were foiled by Messenger Robb, who refused to open the door, despite threats that they would use dynamite if he resisted.
